

National Alumni Association Award Nomination Form

The National Alumni Association wishes to solicit nominations for the following awards and honors: the Bruté Award, DuBois Award, McCloskey Award and Bishop Walsh Award. A brief description of each follows.

Submitted names are reviewed by the appropriate committee, which is composed of Mount St. Mary's University alumni.

SIMON BRUTÉ MEDAL

The Simon Bruté Medal is presented as a recognition of the highest honor conferred upon an alumnus/a, who has distinguished himself/herself through his or her career, commitment to the community, to Mount St. Mary's, or service to fellow citizens, and whose recognition as a recipient of this award will bring honor to Mount St. Mary's University.

JOHN DUBOIS MEDAL

The John DuBois Medal is presented by the National Alumni Association of Mount St. Mary's University to honor the founder and to celebrate the spirit of Mount St. Mary's, which has presented to the world new visions and dreams that challenge the intellect and imagination while preserving the realization that God is seen in all things. The recipient of the John DuBois Medal shall be an individual who has earned national, regional or community recognition for his or her distinguished and meritorious service to either our nation, church, state, community or fellow man and whose recognition as a recipient of this award will bring honor to Mount St. Mary's University.

JOHN CARDINAL MCCLOSKEY AWARD

This award is presented annually by the National Alumni Association at the Priests' Alumni Reunion Banquet to a Mountaineer priest for outstanding service to the mission of the church.

BISHOP JAMES E. WALSH AWARD

Established in 1999, this award, named in honor and memory of the Most Rev. James E. Walsh, prep class of 1906 and college class of 1910, is presented by the National Alumni Association to an alumnus/a who has rendered outstanding service to Mount St. Mary's University and his/her community. It is the intent of the association that the award be presented in conjunction with a chapter or regional alumni event.
