- SAAC
- Seminarian Representative – The Seminary Representatives for the year are Andrew DeFusco and Andrew Soukup. Both are second pre-theologians and have some exciting events planned for this year.
- Class of 2012
- Class of 2011 – The sophomore class officers have decided on a weekly meeting time to meet with Crystal to discuss concerns and ideas as they arise. The officers are selling 2011 class t-shirts during lunch and dinner in Patriot until Thursday. The shirts are $10 and they are going fast! The officers are in the process of forming a letter to their classmates about sitting on the Sophomore Class Advisory board, this letter will go out after the general SGA advisory board has been selected.

- Class of 2010 -The junior class officers have also decided on a weekly time to meet with their advisor and are finalizing plans for an activity during family weekend. The officers are also looking ahead and beginning to plan for their major event Mount Oscars.
- Class of 2009– The senior class officers selected a meeting time to meet with their advisor on a weekly basis. The officers will be visiting the senior formal location on Friday, and other plans for formal are also falling into place. Also, the senior shirts are almost finished!
- Executive Board– Return applications for advisory board and first year class officers to Sean or the SGA Executive Office by September 12th. 1st year class officer speeches held at 7 on September 16th in Laughlin Auditorium, voting will commence online the following day, Wednesday September 17th and run until Friday the 19th at 4:30.
- SGA Advisor– Involvement fair tomorrow from 2-4 on the Peace Plaza and outside the AC. Over 70 organizations have registered to be represented at the event.
- Open Forum
 - Why can't cars be moved after 5:30?, (the new policy is a temporary change that is being used to gauge the effect it has on the on-going concerns regarding parking on campus)
 - What do the people on the advisory board do? – The advisory board members work directly with a member of the administration specifically involved with whatever aspect of student and campus life the committee represents. The advisory board is the backbone to the Student Government Association, they represent a wide spectrum of students and the concerns that students have and each committee works to correct problems and enact new ideas that can make the experience of Mount students more rewarding.
