Dear Dr. Powell:

Congratulations from Caldwell College to the students, faculty, staff and administration at Mount St. Mary's University on your Bicentennial!

It is with great joy we share in Mount St. Mary's celebration as a trailblazer on the frontier of higher education and in the Catholic Church in the United States.

Caldwell College also enjoys a rich tradition of commitment to quality Catholic higher education. Just as Fr. John Dubois was a pioneer, our Foundress Mother Joseph Dunn, along with the Sisters of St. Dominic of Caldwell, went "out into the deep" in 1939 by founding Caldwell College, a Catholic college in the tradition of Saint Dominic.

With this historic anniversary, we join you in remembering those who have been beacons of light in Catholic higher education and we look to a future full of hope for generations of students and seminarians to come.

Ad Multos Annos, Mount St. Mary's University, from Caldwell College!

Sincerely,

Sister Patrice Werner, O.P.
